

When You Move, I Move Writing Workshop & Community Conversation

Sun, March 27, 2022 -2:00 PM – 7:00 PM EDT

Naomi's Garden Restaurant & Lounge
650 Northwest 71st Street -- Miami, FL 33150

About this event

Feeling pressure to move? Wondering where your people are? Does it feel like everything around you is changing too fast? You are a person affected by (climate) gentrification. We invite you to find and use your voice through writing and community conversation.

Process through writing

Write and share your feelings at a free workshop open to the public. Take part in a research study if you are interested (must be 18 years old or older).

2:00 pm The Writing Workshop

- Welcome and Intro to Research
- Short video presentation
- Guided meditation
- Writing prompts and group sharing
- Breathwork
- Revise and rehearse
- Share a light meal

Join the conversation

Performances and conversation - tell us what you think about (climate) gentrification. Take part in a research study if you are interested (must be 18 years old or older).

5:00 pm Performances by workshop participants and local poets

6:00 pm Community conversation & helpful resources

SMASH

STRUGGLE FOR MIAMI'S AFFORDABLE AND SUSTAINABLE HOUSING

<https://smash.miami/resources/>

COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Resources

Mortgages & Rent

Legal Support & Advocacy

Renter Rights Handbook for Miami, FL

Legal Help

Homeless Prevention

Evictions and 10-day Notices

HAND Program

Rental Assistance, Emergency & Transitional Housing

<http://www.citrushealth.org/programs-services/housing/HAND>

More organizations serving the community

Catalyst Miami | CLEAR climate justice program

Additional resources

CLEO Institute

Family Action Network Movement (FANM)

Sant La, Haitian Neighborhood Center, Inc

Community Justice Project

The PEER Group

Miami Workers Center

Avanse Ansanm

Konscious Kontraktors

Concerned Leaders of Little Haiti
